

BBYO SUMMER EXPERIENCES 2019

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

IS THE FOOD KOSHER?

All food is kosher or kosher-style based on location (meat and milk are never mixed). BBYO Domestic Summer Experiences are nut-free. Vegetarian and gluten-free options are always available.

If your teen has other dietary restrictions or allergies, please let us know when you register.

WHAT ABOUT MEDICATION(S)?

BBYO uses CampMeds to provide pre-packaged, pre-dosaged medication to participants who require it.

BBYO summer leadership experiences are highly structured and take place in a classroom setting much of the time. In previous summers, we have found that participants who were on medication to assist with focus during the school year, experienced challenges with the structured CLTC program when they did not continue their medications at CLTC. Consequently, participants often get more from the experience when they continue their school year medications.

Teens attending CLTC at Beber, ILTC, and International Kallah must use the CampMeds service. There is a $250 fee for those who do not register with CampMeds in advance of their summer program and instead bring their medication directly to camp.

IS THERE A DRESS CODE?

Proper attire at BBYO Summer Experiences involves clothing that is neat, clean, and in good repair; it sets a tone for serious learning. We want you to be able to express yourselves and be true to your individual style, while adding to our environment of leadership, learning and community. Clothing that detracts from that environment is not allowed.

The following examples should provide parents and teens with reasonable clothing guidelines. All guidelines below apply to situations in which teens are participating in regular, daily activities. The Jewish value and philosophy surrounding this policy is tzniut, modesty or humility. Tzniut is infinitely more than what we wear—it is who we are.

General Guidelines for All Apparel:

- No item of clothing may bear a logo or message that is antithetical to BBYO values or have any drug or alcohol words, pictures, or symbols.

Shorts/Skirts/Pants:

- Shorts must have at least a three-inch inseam and must cover two inches below the rear end.
- Skirts and dresses must reach the tips of the fingers and must not expose any undergarments.
- Pants must fit properly and not expose any undergarments.

Shirts/Tops:

- Clothing must cover the midriff, torso, back, and chest. Necklines of all clothing must appropriately cover cleavage.
- Clothing may not reveal undergarments in any way (either because the clothing is sheer or because it does not meet the requirements noted above).

This policy is designed to build a culture where clothing does not distract or detract from each teen's ability to build relationships with each other, engage in serious learning, and have a great time at their BBYO Summer Experience(s). We look forward to building that culture together!
