

Caucusing for the high and honorable position of the Nassau Suffolk Region's 64th Sadranit

My sister B'nai B'rith Girls,

Carly Shay, along with her friends, created a web show that quickly became an internet phenomenon. Each webcast featured everything from comedy sketches, to talent contests, to interviews. However, each webcast required a lot of planning and creativity. As Regional Sadranit, I will work tirelessly with the incredible steerers and Rakkaz to plan the most unforgettable convention. I am confident that if given the opportunity, I will create the best "web show" NSR has ever seen. I promise to work to my full potential to make the 2021-2022 programming year a success, so just

goals and ideas

Steering

- Google form applications that are sent out and returned in a timely manner
- Encourage representation from each chapter
- Additional application question for those interested in being a steering captain
- Expand committees for more people to be involved in the success of conventions
- Text all steerers constantly to remind them of what needs to be done and motivate them about their work
- Have very specific deadlines steerers must meet each week

Focus Chapter & Counterparts

- Attend all regional events as well as chapter and focus chapter events
- Constant communication with my focus chapters
- Work closely with my AZA counterpart to ensure successful conventions
- Answer all texts, calls, and other messages in less than 24 hours
- Pick the perfect chair who will help run the best conventions yet
- Be as involved as I can with each steering committee

Convention

- Send a pre-convention rooming survey to find roommates who will connect well and get along
- Create a theme everyone will be able to connect to
- Strive to get the highest convention attendance in NSR history
- Create not only recreational but also impactful programs
- Convention t-shirt design that the region votes on so the region feels included in planning convention
- Judaic programs that talk about anti-semitism, the Holocaust, and Israel
- Committee captains will be awarded to a BBG/Aleph who shows passion towards convention, is organized, and is a leader
