

Candidate for the 31st VAC Aleph S'gan – Aleph Evan Davis Reynolds.

Martin Luther King Jr. said, “If you can’t fly then run, if you can’t run then walk, if you can’t walk then crawl, but whatever you do you have to keep moving forward. For many Alephs and BBGs, this will be their first year of the in-person BBYO experience, and for some, like me, it will be my last. As we return to in-person programming, my one and only mission is to give all members the best possible experience. I want to strive for a year that seniors will remember and an adventure that will inspire young members and motivate them to make an impact on our region. It is my mission to create an unforgettable year for all members of the region.

I want to work with all chapters in Virginia council to plan cohesive programs similar to the tidewater lock-in. I want to help every chapter be the best they can through consistently awesome programming. I will accomplish this by setting small, easily achievable goals.
