LETTER

My brother Alephs,

As we extend our BBYO experience into this new decade, we must realize that the only way to continue improving as a council is to work together to adapt. Now serves as the perfect time to effect great and necessary change in our beloved council. Only through strong brotherhood, energized and motivated members, constant communication, and immense focus and hard work can we see this change come to fruition. I love BBYO and genuinely want to see our council contribute to the great success and growth of this powerful movement. As Council Godol, I promise to bring about this new, vital change and innovate our council to be the best we possibly can and to extend this unparalleled opportunity to every Jewish teen.

Fraternally submitted with undying love for Dr. Israel Brown AZA #256, Virginia Council #56, and Eastern Region #6, I forever remain

Aleph Blake Aaron Brown

Proud Candidate for your 30th Virginia Council Aleph Godol
