BBYO 101

BBYO is the leading pluralistic teen movement aspiring to involve more Jewish teens in more meaningful Jewish experiences. With over 700 teen-led chapters (AZA for boys and BBG for girls) across 50 countries around the world, Jewish teens in communities of all shapes and sizes engage their peers in activities focuses on community service, philanthropy, civic engagement, Israel education, and Jewish heritage, among other topics.

Teens are often drawn into the Movement through social activities like dances, sports leagues, movie screenings, and similar events. In BBYO, teens are in charge; they plan and implement activities (concerts, sports, overnights) and do good for the community (advocacy campaigns, fundraisers, and service work for causes that they choose), mastering valuable leadership skills, forming deep connections with their fellow teens, and building a Jewish identity for themselves in the process. As a teen-led organization, members also plan the year's calendar, manage chapter boards, and communicate with parents.

All Jewish teens in grades 8 through 12 are welcome in BBYO!

What does BBYO look like in MAR: Kansas City Council?

BBYO MAR: Kansas City Council has five chapters and 190 members in the Greater Kansas City and Wichita area. All of our chapters hold events twice a month. Events are planned by teens for teens throughout the entire school year. Members develop and lead programming, which range from fun activities like ice skating, to more serious programming around social justice or leadership development.

Chapters also hold some events with other chapters across the Kansas City area, and teens coordinate carpools for locations that are farther away. Chapters host other exciting events on occasion like fundraisers, Shabbat dinners, and overnights. All chapters participate in regional programs such as dances, community service days, sports leagues, and weekend-long conventions.
