My sister B'Nai B'rith Girls,

A deck of cards is not complete without all fifty-two cards. If even one card is missing, you can't play the game. Just like a deck with missing cards has little purpose, a convention without all the excited people there and participating cannot be successful either. As a region, convention is the time for us to all come together to engage in strong and relevant programs, meaningful Shabbats and services, and important and memorable experiences. Everybody knows that before playing cards, you should always count to make sure the deck is full, or the game won't work. Likewise, a great deal of preparation goes into planning convention in advance of the weekend to make sure it is a success. As Regional Sadranit, I will work tirelessly throughout the year to ensure that our convention is planned thoughtfully and thoroughly, so that a valuable experience is had by all and we win our card game. I am confident in my abilities to elevate convention to places it never been before.

Submitted with undying love and devotion for card games, having all 52 cards, NSR #19, and my heart and home L'Chaim BBG #2148, I forever and always remain

Steering

- Send out applications and return them as quickly as possible
- Continue having dedicated steering captains for each committee
- Expand committees for more people to be involved in the success of conventions
- Have at least 1-2 people per chapter be a part of the steering team
- Work closely with my AZA counterpart to keep steerings as organized as possible
- Text all steerers constantly to remind them of what needs to be done and motivate them about their work
- Have very specific deadlines steerers must meet each week

Goals & Ideas

Elevating Convention

- Create a convention program bank for past ideas to be organized
- Bring back BBG and AZA spirit
- Send a pre-convention rooming survey to find roommates who will connect well and get along
- Send a post-convention survey to understand what people liked and disliked to improve future conventions
- Create a theme everyone will be able to connect to
- Strive to get the highest convention attendance in NSR history
- Work with the 63rd regional Gizborit and S'Ganit to create an ISF program at convention
- Create not only recreational but also impactful programs
- Have senior exclusive and new member exclusive programs

Regional Board & Focus Chapters

- Attend all regional events as well as chapter and focus chapter events
- Work closely with my AZA counterpart to ensure successful conventions
- Pick the perfect chair who will help run the best conventions yet
- Answer all texts, calls, and other messages in less than 24 hours
- Continue to try and recruit younger and older members to get them as engaged as possible
- Be as involved as I can with each steering committee
- Constantly check in with chapter N'siot

*"It's not about the cards you've been dealt.
It's about how you play your hand."
- Randy Pausch*

*"Life is like a game of cards. You can't always change the hand you are given, but you can always take chances with that hand in order to succeed."
- Mike Conner*
