My Mission

- Recruiting the future generation of Alephs
  - The difficult past year has put a hold on aleph membership in NSR. We need to get back on track through intuitive and exciting programs to show our alephs why they joined in the first place.
- Keeping the themes of brotherhood and fraternity prevalent within the region
  - Fraternity is the most important aspect of BBYO and should be stressed on every regional or chapter event.
- Constant communication and support for counterparts
  - I plan on teaching and supporting my counterparts on how to be the most successful Morim they can be. I will be there for them whenever I can for whatever they need.
- Create achievable goals for growth throughout the year
  - To sustain growth for this unpredictable year, achievable goals will be made

My Brother Alephs,

I will not lie when I say this year has been tough. Not just for chapters, but for our region as a hole. Recruitment for Alephs has been at an all time low. However, I refuse to give up as your 64th Regional Aleph Moreh. This organization has led to so many great experiences to everyone that joins, and it is my dream for every Aleph to continue to have these experiences. Whether we are online or beginning in person programs, we need to get back on track.

Fraternally submitted with undying love for my heart and home Zion AZA #2324, The Nassau Suffolk Region #19, and my brother Alephs, I forever remain, Aleph Spencer Jacob Brodwin
