Dear Diary,
My sister B'nai B'rith girls,
The world is a scary and confusing place. Nothing is ever as it seems. It's a world in which it is easy to feel lost or alone. For my entire life, whenever I felt like I didn't belong I would turn to my diary and pour my entire heart onto the pages. My diary gave me a safe place, a way to express myself, but most importantly it became a friend that I could trust forever. As I grew older and entered BBYO I found the safe place that I craved so deeply. As a freshman I was shocked by the inclusive environment, and that age was simply just a number. Slowly I began to realize that the pages of my diary were not filling as quickly, and it was not because I no longer needed it, but because it merely just changed forms. Rather than a book, my diary took the form of the friends I made throughout this organization, my sister BBGs. BBYO has love and power running through it's core and whether you are an 8th or 9th grader just starting out, or your time is coming to an end, the sisterhood that NSR embodies will stay with you for the rest of your life. BBYO has become my personal diary and it will be my mission to make it yours as well.

Submitted with undying love and devotion for my personal diary, the love + power of BBG, NSR #19 and my heart and home L'chaim BBG #2148
I forever and always remain
Alex Sydney Berman
