

My note to the Region

My brother alephs, BBYO is a pluralistic organization: There are alephs throughout our region who practice their Judaism in diverse ways. How could I find a way to help all alephs, regardless of how you practice Judaism, connect with one another? My first answer was community. While some of us may keep kosher, and others of us may have never had a Bar Mitzvah, we are all Jewish, and we all have a Jewish community within BBYO. I ask you all to let me make every event I touch throughout this next year strengthen RMR's community, unity and brotherhood. How will I accomplish that? By emphasizing community, unity, and brotherhood in the three biggest Judaic events next year. I plan on bringing back everything that made Kallah successful this year, to transport all small city chapters down to Denver to participate in J-Serve, and to separate Global Shabbat from Kallah, and turn it into a huge gala in order to raise money for our regional standup cause. On a chapter level, I want to have many coed Judaic chapter events such as shabbats, and celebrations for Judaic holidays, and I want more programming centered around bonding and our brotherly love. These will create hubs of opportunity for us alephs to bond with one another and BBGS, and allow you all to open up to your brothers. As great as the idea of community sounds, I would be remiss if I didn't acknowledge that for many alephs in BBYO, this organization is the one Jewish thing in their lives. While BBYO may not be able to determine how one practices their Judaism, I want help create avenues so that any one of you can become more educated about Judaism, and the values within it. That is why once I am regional chaver, I plan on getting in touch with local Rabbim so they can help us be mensches in our communities, and it's why I plan on bringing back a Jewish educator to this year's Kallah. Many may not think of Chaver as the sexiest position, but I am going to change that perception. The bond you will all form through the opportunities I am going to help create will be special, and the opportunity to learn and appreciate Judaic values will help you in all walks of life, such as being a good friend, and getting better at your romantic relationships. I am passionate about what I'll be doing, and my drive will allow me to accomplish everything on this platform. So my brother alephs, I ask of you one thing: Trust me to be your regional Chaver. Submitted with undying love for RMR, AZA, my home Judge Saul Pinchik AZA #6, Challah bread, and all of the brothers on the regional zoom call I've made connections with prior to the "Coronation,"

I humbly remain aleph Manny Judah Adelstein. The damn proud candidate for RMR regional Chaver.

Our brotherhood is special: it needs to be nurtured and built upon

Qualifications

RMR #25

- Coordinated Spring Convention 2019
- 100% attendance at regional conventions
- Member of two RMR delegations to international convention
- Steered Camp Con 2018
- Former Regional Gizbor Candidate
- CLTI '19, '20

Outside of BBYO

- Attended three years of JCC Ranch Camp
- Member at the Robert E. Loup JCC
- Studied and lived at la academia de Barcelona, Spain for five weeks
- Confirmed at Temple Emanuel
- Took confirmation trips to D.C and New York City
- Had my Bar Mitzvah
- Attended Denver Jewish Day School for nine years
- Lettered in Basketball at Kent Denver
- Basketball trainer
- Led leadership team for the Student Union of Diversity Awareness at Kent, and multiplied membership by 300%

International Order

- International Convention 2019
- International Convention 2020

Judge Saul Pinchik AZA #6

- Active member since March 2017
- Held positions for three terms on board
- Grandfather, father, and brother were members
- Created bonds with dozens of members
- Taken care of buffer for a week

193rd AZA #6 Chaver (Corona term)

- Helped plan intake night
- Dedicated 20% of all money raised during 193rd term to the Friends of the Israeli Defense Force (Ongoing)
- Helped program a co-shabbat dinner with 165 (Pending)
- Planned to have a chapter shabbat hike (Pending)

191st AZA #6 Gizbor

- Raised over $700
- Planned for chapter fundraiser at California Pizza Kitchen
- Created a March Madness fundraiser
- Created a fantasy football fundraiser
- Helped board sell out chapter swag at IC

190th AZA #6 Mazkir

- Sent weekly emails throughout the entire term
- Posted for every birthday during the term
- Ran the chapter Instagram, snapchat, remind, and email

How our brotherhood and unity will be strengthened

Winter Kallah <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bring back Saturday Morning Energizer Programs • Have an official Regional Business Meeting • Give chapter boards an opportunity to come up with legislature they would like to pass during the Regional Business Meeting • Give grand board, and regional board members of RMR an opportunity to create legislature • Work with my regional counterpart to come up with a theme we would both be happy with for Winter Kallah • Dedicate my time and bring in my past knowledge from coordinating SRC in order to make Kallah a place where members from different chapters can connect with one another • Bring in a Jewish educator to enrich the learning environment 	Global Shabbat <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Separate the event from Winter Kallah • Bring in a keynote speaker to interest BBYO alumni to attend • Use Global Shabbat as an opportunity to fundraise for the region and for the regional Standup cause • Work efficiently and productively with Ian, Hannah, my regional Counterpart, and anyone else helping to plan Global Shabbat 	Solidarity through Service (J-Serve) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bring small-city chapters into Denver for the weekend so they can participate in J-Serve • Use regional funds, not J-Serve funds, to transport small-city chapters into Denver • Communicate with Jewish Colorado in order to partner with their annual good deeds day • Have multiple J-Serve sites throughout the city, giving RMR the opportunity to participate in multiple activities in one day • Have sites include learning based workshops, and hands-on work • Have a site dedicated to the regional standup cause • End the J-Serve day with an inexpensive regional celebration for our hard work
Traditions: Old and New <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Encourage the continuation of chapter shabbat dinners and havdallah services • Ensure there is at least one coed judaic chapter program per month • Have a regional shabbat dinner event • Bring in judaic speakers before meetings each month • Add new songs to Regional Spirit • Have a regional shabbat dinner event • Reach out to local Rabbim who would like to have talmud study lessons with members of RMR • Have a regional shabbat hike • Give members of the region an opportunity to strengthen previous, and learn new jewish values 	Regional Standup Cause <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work with my regional counterpart to quickly identify a Regional Standup Cause we would like to help out, in order to begin planning how we will raise money and volunteer • Work with the regional gizbor to come up with dinner fundraisers for the regional standup • Officially declare the regional standup by passing it during a Regional Business Meeting • Continually raise money for the regional standup throughout the year • Include a site on the day of J-Serve for the regional standup cause • Present the regional standup cause to RMR to get everyone excited about giving back to an important cause 	Chapter Standup Causes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communicate with chapter counterparts over how they plan to raise money and volunteer for their standup cause • Create a Regional competition over who can raise the most money for their standup in a term, with the winners receiving more money to donate to their standup • Give financial incentives to chapters to volunteer for their standup causes
Summer Programming <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attempt to send at least 20 members of RMR to Kallah over Summer 21 • Attempt to send at least 20 members of RMR to ILTC over Summer 21 • Attempt to send at least 30 members of RMR to CLTC over Summer 21 	Regional Counterpart <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work closely with throughout the year • Form a productive relationship to effectively work on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Winter Kallah • Global Shabbat • Services during each convention • J-Serve • Communication with chapter counterparts • The regional standup cause • Anything that comes up throughout the term 	Chapter Counterparts/Focus Chapter <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attend chapter events to get to know my chapter counterparts throughout the region • Once I'm in communication with my chapter counterparts, help them with programming, planning, and ideas • Focus on equity with chapter chavers: Make sure they are all in a good place, even if that means needing to push/help one or two chavers more than others • Know my chapter counterparts chapter schedules, so I know when I should check in with them • Constantly update, give resources, and communicate with chapter counterparts. A regional board member is only as good as his chapter counterparts • Follow in the shoes of Adam Slosky and continue to have the regional chaver work with Vail as a focus chapter. If this happens, stay in vail for a weekend in order to get to know the chapter